WE ARE NOT DEBTORS

Our King comes, not in the glory of earthly rulers, but as a humble poor man. Jesus tells us how God works in the world. Paul reminds us that we are not debtors to the flesh, but we are free people, liberated to be our best selves, to serve God and each other with humility and joy.

How do we live out this freedom of ours? Many of the world's poor live in severe poverty, their nations' economies weighed down by the yoke and burden of debt. This crushing debt is owed to the wealthy countries of the world, their banks and their investors. Our affluence rests in some measure on the back-breaking poverty of our brothers and sisters.

It is good to contemplate what we can do to relieve or forgive these debts that have been paid many times over, because interest payments are counted first. Pope John Paul II called for forgiveness of such debts, and some progress has been made, yet much suffering remains.

YOU WILL FIND REST

The promise of Jesus is good news indeed. God has hidden the knowledge of the reign of God from the learned and the wise, those who say that the poor are responsible for their own plight, and that nothing can be done for them. Jesus turns such human wisdom on its head, proclaiming instead that God works differently. We are poor in spirit if we follow Jesus in lifting the yoke of the law and slavery to the flesh, freeing the burdened of their crushing load. It may cost our economy some of its profits, but we can believe that our burdens will also be lifted and our work made light. What seems impossible to the learned is known to the humble. When we rest in Christ, laying down the burden of our preoccupation with "things," we can rejoice with all people at the coming of our meek and humble Lord, who brings holy rest to an anxious and materialistic world.

Fr. Miranda please feel free to print this message of gratitude in your bulletin.

Dear Pastor, parish Staff and Parishioners,

The continuing generosity you offer to the Catholic Campaign for Human Development collection is very deeply appreciated. To date, almost 90% of parishes contributed to this year's collection. Sacred Heart is part of this remarkable generosity having contributed $1,079.00. Thank you for sending your contribution promptly and please let me know if this amount does not match your records so we can rectify it.

Through your donations you participate in projects working with issues of affordable housing, safer neighborhoods, economic development and the improvement of life for the elderly, immigrants and disabled in Cook and Lake Counties.

I extend my personal prayers of gratitude to each of you for the attention you give to CCHD through the collection and the on-going transformative education about bringing justice to the poor. On behalf of all those whose lives are touched by your kind support may our God of justice bless you abundantly.

Gratefully,

Elena Segura
CCHD Director

A HUMBLE KING...

Like a tonal center in music, the note to which we keep returning in today's readings is humility. We wait in joyful expectation for the coming of our Lord as King. But what we are told to expect and rejoice over is a meek and humble king, riding on an ass. Not horses or chariots of the great and mighty, but a humble beast carries the Ruler whose dominion stretches "from the River to the ends of the earth" (Zechariah 9:10). This King comes to banish the tools of the warrior and bring peace. No wonder that a weary world rejoices and gives thanks to God!

Decimocuarto Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario- 6 de julio de 2008

“Vengan a mí, todos los que están fatigados y agobiados por la carga, y yo los aliviaré”.— Mateo 11:28

Decimocuarto Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

NO VIVIMOS SEGÚN LA CARNE

Nuestro Rey llega, no con el esplendor de los gobernantes mortales, sino como un hombre sencillo y humilde. Jesús nos dice cómo Dios obra en el mundo. Pablo nos recuerda que no vivimos según la carne, sino que somos personas libres, liberadas para tratar de ser lo mejor, para servir a Dios y al prójimo con humildad y alegría.

¿Cómo usamos esta libertad que tenemos? Mucha gente sencilla vive en la pobreza extrema, la economía de sus naciones está agobiada por el yugo y la carga de la deuda. Esta deuda aplastante la han impuesto los países ricos del mundo, sus bancos y sus inversionistas. Nuestra riqueza económica se apoya hasta cierto punto en la pobreza devastadora de nuestros hermanos y nuestras hermanas.

Es bueno reflexionar sobre qué podemos hacer para aliviar o perdonar estas deudas que han sido pagadas varias veces, porque primero se calculan y se cobran los intereses. El papa Juan Pablo II pidió que se perdonaran tales deudas, y algo se ha progresado, sin embargo todavía queda mucho sufrimiento.

ENCONTRARÁS DESCANSO

La promesa de Jesús es una buena noticia sin lugar a dudas. Dios escondió el conocimiento del reino de Dios a los entendidos y sabios, aquellos que dicen que los pobres son responsables de su propia situación y que no se puede hacer nada por ellos. Jesús contradice esa sabiduría humana al proclamar que Dios obra de manera diferente. Somos pobres de espíritu si suprimimos el yugo de la ley y la esclavitud de la carne, al aliviar a los agobiados de su apabullante carga. Puede que nuestra economía tenga que sacrificar alguna ganancia, pero no nos quepa duda que nuestras cargas también serán aliviadas y nuestro trabajo se hará más ligero. Lo que parece imposible para el sabio, lo conoce la gente sencilla. Cuando descansamos en Cristo, y nos deshacemos de la carga de nuestras preocupaciones por las “cosas”, podemos regocijarnos junto a todos los pueblos por la venida de nuestro manso y humilde Señor, quien le trae un descanso santo a este mundo ansioso y materialista. Lecturas de hoy: Zacarías 9:9-10; Salmo 145:1-2, 8-11, 13-14; Romanos 8:9, 11-13; Mateo 11:25-30
