A Message

1. Sacred Heart Parish Pastoral Council met on September 8th, 2008 at 7:00 p.m. I would like to share with you some of the important plans, programs and things the Council is scheduled to discuss about for the year 2008-09 are the following:

- a. OKTOBERFEST— October 18, 2008 Saturday after 5:00 p.m. Mass. More details are in the bulletin. Please save this date. It's only for fun, to get together and see all our parish family and friends after the Summer.
  - b. THANKSGIVING— Liturgy Committee will plan liturgy, music and other activities. More information later on.
  - c. ADVENT 2008— Parish Council is looking for a guest priest/religious or layperson to speak at all the weekend Masses of November 29-30, 2008, the First Sunday of Advent.
  - d. ADVENT MEDIATION AND REFLECTION BOOKLETS— Parish Council has approved that all parish family members will receive a spiritual self-help booklet to prepare for Advent and Christmas this year.
  - e. PARISH MISSION: It is a Sacred Heart Parish custom to have Parish Mission once in two years. Our next Parish Mission will be in 2009. We are searching for a Mission Speaker. More information later.
  - f. SALUTING OUR MEN AND WOMEN IN ARMED FORCES— As a Parish, we have not done anything to honor our Men and Women in Armed Forces since the war began. I know that there were and there are many sons and daughters, fathers and mothers, uncle and aunts and relatives and friends in the armed forces, in Iraq and Afghanistan and other dangerous places. Parish will honor and remember all of them on Veterans Day. Please give the names of all active and deceased to the Rectory Office calling 708-344-0757. More details later on.
2. TASTE OF MELROSE PARK: We would like to thank Mrs. Diane Trusco and her team of volunteers for selling the foam trays and raising funds for Sacred Heart Parish. She has been quietly and enthusiastically doing this for many years. Sacred Heart thanks her generously. Thank you and God bless you Diane Trusco.
3. Sacred Heart Women's Club has recruited 63 new members this year. I am very much impressed excited. Women's Club is planning some exciting programs. Watch the bulletin.
4. Tot Lot: You may be embarrassed as I am to see weeds growing in our Tot Lot. It is not that we have neglected to put mulch on it. We were trying to get mulch that is only used for playgrounds. Meanwhile, the Asphalt Company came in to repair our parking lot. The School Principal told me that she was trying to find Playground mulch with the help of one of the school parents. As soon as it is found, the Tot Lot will be taken care of.

Jesus was the perfect steward - giving up His very life for us. None of us can be perfect stewards. Yet, in love and gratitude for all that God has given to us, we can strive daily to give a little more of our lives into God's hands. This is the stewardship journey and it is a journey that brings true joy.

CLOTHING DRIVE

Sacred Heart will be having another clothing drive the weekend of September 20th/21st. We are looking for new or gently worn clean clothing.

There will be receptacles at the entrances of church for clothing donations. We are only accepting clothing on this weekend in Church. This is a new ministry we are starting on a trial basis to see if we can address a need in our community. Your help will be greatly appreciated.

ARCHDIOCESE OF CHICAGO

OFFICE OF THE CARDINAL

September 2, 2008

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

In the midst of a lengthy political campaign, matters of public policy that are also moral issues sometimes are misrepresented or are presented in a partial or manipulative fashion. While everyone could be expected to know the Church's position on the immorality of abortion and the role of law in protecting unborn children, it seems some profess not to know it and others, even in the Church, dispute it. Since this teaching has recently been falsely presented, the following clarification may be helpful.

The Catholic Church, from its first days, condemned the aborting of unborn children as gravely sinful. Not only Scripture's teaching about God's protection of life in the womb (consider the prophets and the psalms and the Gospel stories about John the Baptist and Jesus himself in Mary's womb) but also the first century catechism (the Didache or Teaching of the Twelve Apostles) said: "You shall not slay the child by abortions. You shall not kill what is generated." The teaching of the Church was clear in a Roman Empire that permitted abortion. This same teaching has been constantly reiterated in every place and time up to Vatican II, which condemned abortion as a "heinous crime." This is true today and will be so tomorrow. Any other comments, by politicians, professors, pundits or the occasional priest, are erroneous and cannot be proposed in good faith.

This teaching has consequences for those charged with caring for the common good, those who hold public office. The unborn child, who is alive and is a member of the human family, cannot defend himself or herself. Good law defends the defenseless. Our present laws permit unborn children to be privately killed. Laws that place unborn children outside the protection of law destroy both the children killed and the common good, which is the controlling principle of Catholic social teaching. One cannot favor the legal status quo on abortion and also be working for the common good.

This explains why the abortion issue will not disappear and why it is central to the Church's teaching on a just social order. The Church does not endorse candidates for office, but she does teach the principles according to which Catholics should form their social consciences. The teaching, which covers intrinsic evils such as abortion and many other issues that are matters of prudential judgment, could not be clearer; the practice often falls short because we are all sinners. There is no room for self-righteousness in Catholic moral teaching.

The Conference of Bishops in this country and the Bishops of Illinois have issued statements about Catholic social teaching and political life. They are available in our parishes. All of us should keep our country and all the candidates for office in the next election in our prayers. God bless you and your families.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Francis Cardinal George, O.M.I.
Archbishop of Chicago

REFLEXION DOMINGO XXIV

Celebramos hoy la Fiesta de la Exaltación de la Cruz. Cristo por nosotros se hizo obediente hasta la muerte, y muerte de cruz» (Flp 2, 8). Con estas palabras, la liturgia resume lo que aconteció en el Gólgota, hace ahora dos mil años. El evangelista Juan, testigo ocular, narra los acontecimientos dolorosos de la pasión de Cristo. Cuenta su dura agonía, sus últimas palabras: “Todo se ha consumado” (cf. Jn 19, 30) y cómo un soldado romano traspasó su costado con una lanza. Del pecho atravesado del Redentor salió sangre y agua, prueba inequívoca de su muerte (cf. Jn 19, 34) y don extremo de su amor misericordioso.

“Despreciado y evitado”, como dijo Isaías, está Cristo en el hombre afrentado y aniquilado en la guerra y en cualquier lugar donde triunfe la cultura de la muerte; “triturado por nuestros crímenes” está el Mesías en las víctimas del odio y del mal de todos los tiempos y en cualquier lugar. “Como ovejas errantes” parecen a veces los pueblos divididos y marcados por la incomprensión y la indiferencia.

Sin embargo, en el horizonte de este escenario de sufrimiento y de muerte, brilla para la humanidad la esperanza: “A causa de los trabajos de su alma, verá y se hartará (...); mi Siervo justificará a muchos”. La cruz, en la noche del dolor y del abandono, es antorcha que mantiene viva la espera del nuevo día de la resurrección. Miramos con fe hacia la cruz de Cristo, mientras por medio de ella queremos proclamar al mundo el amor misericordioso del Padre por cada hombre.

Sí, hoy es el día de la misericordia y del amor, el día en el que se ha llevado a cabo la redención del mundo, porque el pecado y la muerte han sido derrotados por la muerte salvífica del Redentor.

Divino Rey crucificado, que el misterio de tu muerte gloriosa triunfe en el mundo. Haz que no perdamos el valor y la audacia de la esperanza ante los dramas de la humanidad y ante cada situación injusta que mortifica a la criatura humana, redimida con tu sangre preciosa. Al contrario, haz que con renovada fuerza proclamemos: Tu cruz es victoria y salvación, porque con tu sangre y tu pasión has redimido al mundo. Amen. Fr Víctor Cruz.

¡FELICITACIONES!

Nos unimos a la alegría general por estos dos años de presencia del Ministerio Hispano en esta parroquia, particularmente a través de la Celebración Eucarística Dominical y también en la participación de líderes en los espacios en que ello ha sido posible. En el amor maravilloso del Sagrado Corazón de Jesús y en los brazos de María Santísima, encomendamos el futuro próspero de nuestra comunidad. Invitación a todos a continuar con amor para llevar a la madurez espiritual a nuestra Parroquia. ¡Bendiciones!
Fr Víctor Cruz.
