Reflections for the Second Week of Lent...

Since I had to write my reflections for the First Week of Lent before Ash Wednesday, I could not comment on the wonderful turnout for the Ash Wednesday Masses and Prayer Service. A number of people remarked that they had not seen such a big crowd in church in a long time as at the 6:30pm Ash Wednesday Mass. The other liturgies were also well attended. We had a 1000 crosses to express our Lenten theme of "Lift High the Cross", but I am sorry to say we ran out at the end of the 6:30pm Mass. We had none for the 8pm Spanish Mass. We have more on order and will bless them and give them out as soon as we get them, especially at the 12:30 Sunday Mass.

We hope that everyone will wear their cross in witness and follow the Lord through the "valley" of Lent in prayer, fasting and almsgiving!

Along with the idea of prayer, fasting and almsgiving during Lent goes the idea of showing reverence and respect for our church, the house of God! Some people have grown sloppy in their church manners! Chewing gum, wearing hats for men, talking and laughing loudly especially before Mass are a sign of disrespect to God and His house! I ask everyone doing any of the above to think about it, pray about it, and stop it! Thank You!

P.S. And please be sure to put the gum into a garbage can and NOT on the ground outside church, or the bottom of the church bench, or the side of a church brick!

Welcome to Fr. Carmello Mendez! I have asked Fr. Carmello, who is the pastor of St. Eulalia Parish in Maywood to alternate the 12:30pm Spanish Mass with Fr. Meyr, who has graciously agreed. As time goes by, I am sure we will all become more acquainted with Fr. Mendez as he makes his contribution to Sacred Heart. He was ordained in 2002 at Holy Name Cathedral and has served in a couple of parishes in the archdiocese. Welcome! Bienvenidos!

The votes are still coming in on the clock! Feel free to have your say. I promise I will not "swoon" if you tell me you don't like it (even though I hope people do like it)!!! Another week or so should tell!

The Ambry (cabinet) for the Holy Oils and the statue of the Lord's Baptism are now in the place that I think would be good for them in church. But of course we all have to look at them and use them in the course of our worship. Therefore, what do you think? Please let me know. We'll leave them up for a while so they have a chance to give us a valid impression!

P.S. Please keep in mind that the stands they are on are only for display. They would not be there permanently, as both items would be wall mounted.

The First Friday of Lent Soup and Bread was good! It was prepared by Joe Augelli and some helpers. The Station Services following (7pm English) (8pm Spanish) were fitting. We invite all to walk with the Lord this coming Friday!

Enough...

ALL ABOUT CHANGE.....

On this Second Sunday of Lent the scriptures remind us that when we have an encounter with our God, things are bound to change. In the first reading God tells Abram to raise his eyes to the sky, promising descendants as numerous as the stars. Abram's act of faith in the Lord is sealed in covenant, forever changing the course of salvation history. In the Gospel story of the Transfiguration, always proclaimed on this Lenten Sunday, the Lord Jesus changes in appearance before the eyes of the apostles who, like Abram, raise their eyes to the spectacle in the sky. It is Saint Paul who brings it all together for us: "He will change our lowly body to conform with his glorified body" (Philippians 3:21). Lent is all about change, all about conversion. Let us cast our own eyes to heaven, awaiting that day when we will be changed—when we will share in Christ's glory.

SOUP & BREAD AND STATIONS OF THE CROSS:

We will be serving Soup and Bread on Fridays during Lent at 6:00 p.m. to 6:45 p.m. in the Marian Hall, and then, we all will join for "Stations of the Cross" in the Church at 7:00 p.m. in English and at 8:00 p.m. in Spanish. We may be able to skip a meal and experience hunger and thirst in the world. One way to observe Lent. Will I LIFT HIGH THE CROSS?

"I am the Lord who brought you from Ur of the Chaldeans to give you this land as a possession."

- Genesis 15:7

Just as the Lord gave Abraham, Moses and the Israelites a land to possess, He has also given each of us a home. Whether our home is grand or humble, it is a gift from God. Abraham prepared a great sacrifice to the Lord in gratitude for the home God gave him. How do we show our gratitude to God for the home He has given us? Do we make a sacrifice of any kind? Do we return any of our finances to God, investing equally in our eternal home just as we invest in our current abode?

TRANSFIGURACIÓN

¿Has tenido alguna vez una experiencia que te haya hecho ver a una persona bajo una luz totalmente distinta? Tal vez cuando viste a tu hija con su toga y su birrete el día de su graduación. O a tu hermano sosteniendo en brazos a su bebé recién nacido. Quizás tu padre realizó algún acto inesperado de compasión, o tu madre demostró una valentía que tú nunca habías visto en ella. Es posible que te hayas sentido tímido, sin saber cómo dirigirte a esa persona que acababa de transfigurarse ante tus ojos. En el Evangelio de hoy, los discípulos de Jesús lo ven bajo una luz completamente nueva. Su rostro “cambió de aspecto” y los discípulos no sabían qué hacer o decir. Antes de que éstos puedan responderle apropiadamente a Jesús, deben aprender a creer con sus ojos y oídos que Jesús es el “Hijo elegido” de Dios.

Lecturas de hoy: Génesis 15:5-12, 17-18; Salmo 27:1, 7-9, 13-14; Filipenses 3:17 — 4:1 [3:20 — 4:1]; Lucas 9:28b-36 Copyright © 2006, World Library Publications. All rights
